Many of Monterey County's small producers tend to make wines which will appeal to a more Eurocentric collector's palate: austere and sophisticated, age-worthy and without excessive oak, ML, and RS. These small producers turn out appellation-defining jewels that appeal to the connoisseur's appetite for distinctive, world-class collectibles and many handpick their grapes. Two of the county's most prestigious appellations, Carmel Valley and the Santa Lucia Highlands are showcased in the Carmel Valley Village Tasting Rooms: Carmel Valley - Chateau Sinnet, Joyce Chateau Christina, Marinus Bernardus, Heller Estates, and Joullian. Santa Lucia Highlands - Talbott, Sleepy Hollow A&B, and Boekenooogen.

All the Village's Tasting Rooms are within walking distance from Country Garden Inns - Hidden Valley Inn & Acacia Lodge

Enjoy our serene valley . . . out of the reach of the coastal fog
